JURORS FOR MARCH TERM.

Marriage of Mrs. Amanda C. Roberts and Ralph D. Roberts—Two Suits For Divorce—Junction Briefs.

Ogden, Feb. 25.—The wild and woolly days of the west were recalled yesterday afternoon, when Sheriff L. G. Clark, accompanied by Deputies C. G. Winter and Fred Morris arrived in the city from Idaho, having in custody Jesse Coats, Frank Walsh and O. Tenner, a trio of horse thieves, who were captured after an exciting chase. The prisoners were placed in the county jail until this morning, when they were taken to Elko, Nevada, where they will be tried for robbery.

The trio of robbers on Feb. 19, stole a head of horses from the Indians on reservation in Elko county, Nevada, and started for Idaho. As soon as the officers were notified of the theft the three officers took up the trail and overtook the robbers at the New Three creek in Idaho. The stolen horses were all recovered and sent overland by a deputy sheriff and assistants back to the Indians in Nevada, while the men were taken back by rail.

She alleges that he makes a good salary as a bartender at Baile's Mountain, Nevada. The divorce and the custody of the children are asked for.
